With Dell's innovative education solutions your students are ready to connect, collaborate and learn.

Dear Xxxxx Xxxxx,

Thank you for attending BETT and helping to make the launch of our unique new education solutions a success. If you were not able to make it, please visit the Dell website where you can see the solutions we presented at BETT 2010: the Connected Classroom and Virtual Classroom solutions. If you attended the show and requested further information from one of our specialist education consultants, follow-up calls will be commencing shortly.

Visit dell.co.uk/bett to learn more information on each of these solutions.

Warmest regards,

Kenneth Harley
Head of UK Education
